

Former Student Leads Dance Workshop

Former student, Jessica Williams, who has gone on to have a career in Musical Theatre, came back to school to lead a 'Grease and Six' themed Dance Workshop for our students. Our students were really focused and engaged in trying to master the routines from the two musicals. Jess also delivered a Q&A session at the end of the day about her journey since leaving Denbigh. Jess is part of our Alumni Network through which former Denbigh students keep in touch with the School. It currently has over 300 members.
