

We were delighted to host a Diana Award Antibullying Ambassador training session involving schools from across the region. The training is based on a peer led approach and aims to give students confidence to deal with any bullying situations that may arise both on and off line.